DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 1-9, 14-16 and 20-21, drawn to a plant cell, a method for generating a genetically modified plant, a plant, propagation material of plants and a method of modifying the starch of a plant comprising altering the activity of starch biosynthetic enzymes.

Group II, claims 10-11, 13, and 17-18, drawn to starch.

Group III, claims 12 and 19, drawn to a method for producing starch comprising extracting starch from a plant.

The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Groups I-III share the technical feature of altered starch characteristics via the modification of plants leading to the altered expression of starch biosynthetic enzymes, however, the feature is not special because it does not constitute an advancement over the prior art. Burrell (US Patent 6468799) teaches modified starch obtained from plants genetically modified with altered expression of starch biosynthetic genes.

Furthermore, each group involves products and processes not required by the other so that groups are not linked by a single feature. Group I, a first product and process, requires plant breeding and plant regeneration materials and method steps not required by the starch of Group II or the Starch extraction process of Group III:

Furthermore, the plants of Group I could be used for ornamental purposes, or directly as food, rather than just as a source of starch. Group II, a second product, requires starch processing steps and materials not required by Group I. Group III a second process, requires plants not required by Group II and requires extraction steps and materials not required by Group I.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Brent Page whose telephone number is (514)-272-5914. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday 8-5.
